

The Government of Switzerland and the Terre des hommes Foundation

World Congress on Juvenile Justice

26th to 30th of January 2015 at the International Conference Center of Geneva – CICG Geneva (Switzerland)

Dear member,

As many of you will know the above World Congress on Juvenile Justice will take place in Geneva at the end of January 2015. Bernard Boëton, of TdH, an NGO affiliated to IAYFJM, has kindly offered IAYFJM delegates to the Congress the use of two rooms during the Congress. The offer relates to Wednesday January 28th: 2 hours between 16.00 to 19.00 and Friday, January 30th: 11.00 to 13.00

To plan proper use of these facilities please would members let the secretary general know (if you have not already done so) whether you will be attending the Congress.

In one session, the topic for discussion will be Child Friendly Justice. Our International Working Group on Child Friendly Justice will present draft proposals for discussion.

The other session will discuss the way forward for the World Congress in 2018

Further information about the Congress is available at:

in english : <https://www.eda.admin.ch/deza/en/home/etc/world-congress-on-juvenile-justice.html>

in french : <https://www.eda.admin.ch/deza/fr/home/etc/weltkongress-zum-jugendstrafrecht.html>

in spanish : <https://www.eda.admin.ch/deza/es/home/etc/weltkongress-zum-jugendstrafrecht.html>

in german : <https://www.eda.admin.ch/deza/de/home/etc/weltkongress-zum-jugendstrafrecht.html>

Yours sincerely,

Avril

Avril Calder

President of the International Association of Youth and Family Judges and Magistrates--IAYFJM

Présidente de l'Association Internationale des Magistrats de la Jeunesse et de la Famille--AIMJF

Presidenta de la Asociación Internacional de la Juventud y la Familia--AIMJF